

Dawn A. Fuller
Pasadena, CA
Director Since: July 2010
Current Position: Vice President
Current Profession: Los Angeles County 4-H Program Coordinator

Bio:

Dawn A. Fuller is the Los Angeles County 4-H Program Coordinator for the UC Cooperative Extension. She has a strong interest in agriculture, spending her early days in El Centro (Imperial Valley) and San Luis Obispo, where in both areas she was actively involved in 4-H. She received her Associates Degree with an emphasis in English Literature at Cuesta College, and a Bachelor of Arts in Communications at Cal State Bakersfield. She grew up listening to her Ag Appraiser father talking about crop budgets, water issues, Ag Business and watching him work hand-in-hand with local farmers.

Previous to working for the Cooperative Extension, Dawn worked at the Braille Institute Library in Los Angeles for 12 years doing Public Relations, Event Planning and Volunteer Coordination for the Library.

Dawn currently works with local youth, ages 5-19, and through 4-H, promotes hands-on learning, based on parent and volunteer participation. The goal of 4-H is to help youth build self-esteem, connect with their community, develop leadership skills, make friends, share interests and gain valuable knowledge that will help guide them through life and be the best they can be.
